Basalt firm gets lighting awards

Robert Singer and Associates in Basalt was recently honored with two awards for the lighting design of two homes located in Aspen.

Cooper Lighting recently announced the winners of its 33rd Annual SOURCE Awards national lighting design competition at a convention in Las Vegas.

Singer and Associates took top honors in the Professional Residential category for the lighting design of the Ridge Residence in Aspen. Robert H. Singer and Kim Quint of the firm were also honored with an Award of Recognition in the same category for the lighting design of the Willow Court residence, also in Aspen.
